

LUNCHING & LEARNING WITH THE BEST!

In February, We had the privilege of attending a truly inspiring and empowering luncheon hosted by Makzia Wali, the Director of Ropstam. She is not just a leader but a true advocate for women's empowerment in the workplace. She has consistently demonstrated a deep commitment to supporting the growth and development of women within Ropstam and beyond, creating an environment where everyone feels valued, recognized, appreciated and heard.

This gathering was an initiative to bring together the talented women of Ropstam Islamabad for a day of open dialogue, sharing experiences, and thoughtful discussion. During these get togethers, She led a series of sessions that encouraged the women to express their ideas, challenges, and aspirations, fostering an atmosphere of trust and collaboration. The discussions were rich and forward-thinking, focusing on how we, as a team, can contribute to the future success and growth of Ropstam, while also championing gender equality, Innovation, collaboration, and creativity in our work environment.
